The Wallace Monument is erected on a wooded hill just above Causewayhead, overlooking the waters of the Forth. It is only a short tram ride from Stirling, and is a popular excursion owing to the fine views of the surrounding country to be obtained from the top. A statue of the national hero has lately been added.

Dear Ethel. The holidays have nearly gone now I don't seem to have been home a week. We you have had a nice time. We had a children party. We go to Sunday picnics. We go to another factory. They are always
up. I tell them to be on time Wednesday it was very good. Love from Mother
